

Radical Statistics

2016 Conference and AGM: Statistics of Crisis in UK and EU

Saturday 27 February, 2016
Priory Street Centre, 15 Priory St, York YO1 6ET

Coffee & registration 9:00. 9:30 start, 5:00 close.
5:15 Annual General Meeting

Morning theme: Inequality, poverty and reducing the state in the UK
Afternoon theme: Impact of cuts on the vulnerable

Speakers include –

- Stewart Lansley on Economic Inequality and Debt
- Jonathan Bradshaw on (Child) Poverty
- Deborah Quilgars on Housing Crisis in UK
- Gillian Parker on Social policy on care for older people
- Pip Tyler on Migrants and Refugees in Yorkshire and UK

Register now at www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/radical-statistics-2016-conference-tickets-20564586231?ref=ebtnebtckt

Registration is only £50 with discounts for members as well as students or low income. For inquiries email the administrator, Alistair Cairns (admin@radstats.org.uk). Registration includes lunch and refreshments throughout the day. Non-members receive a one year introductory membership and subscription to Radical Statistics journal.

This conference is part of the RadStats weekend which also includes:

Friday 26th 6:30-10:30 pm Social pub outing
Saturday 27th 5:15 – 6:30 pm Radical Statistics AGM
7:30 Evening meal to be arranged according to numbers
Sunday 28th 10:30 am Walking tour of York (Limited spaces. A charge may apply.)

PLUS: A workshop to discuss Radstats Future Book Publications will take place (same venue) on Friday 26 February. See www.radstats.org.uk/workshop-on-future-radstats-publications.

See www.radstats.org.uk/conference/conference-2016/ for further information.