

Radical Statistics Annual Conference & AGM 2004

Privatisation: Policies and Statistics

Friends House, London
(across from Euston Station)

Saturday 28 February
9:30 to 5 o'clock

Keynote by Professor Allyson Pollock

Chair of Health Policy & Health Services Research, UCL and Director of Research & Development at UCL Hospitals NHS Trust

To register, send in the enclosed booking form or send enquiries to admin@radstats.org.uk

Speakers:

ALLYSON POLLOCK: "The NHS Plan: have the targets for expanded services been achieved? What the data tell us (Part 1)"

ALISON MACFARLANE: "The NHS Plan... (Part 2)"

JEAN SHAOUL: "Changes in accounting for public services and impact on data and transparency"

MIKE IRONSIDE: "The impact of privatisation and marketisation on employment conditions in the public services"

MARTIN MEYER: "The real cost of privatising public transport"

JAY GINN: "Denying and disrupting solidarity: UK pension privatization"

Social Events:

- Friday night gathering at Lucas Arms Pub, 245a Grays Inn Rd, WC1X 8QZ (from 7 o'clock, food available)
- Saturday evening meal at South Asian restaurant in the Drummond Street (Advance booking appreciated)
- Sunday Walk along the Canal, beginning at Angel tube station, Islington.