

An ageing society: Are we prepared?

Radical Statistics Conference and AGM
Saturday, 7th March 2009

Venue: Oxford Institute of Ageing, Manor Road Building, Oxford OX1 3UQ
(adjacent to St Catherine's College, Manor Road)

~~~~~

9.30am: Registration and coffee

10.00-10.05: TROIKA

Chair: Hafiz Khan

10.05-10.30: Paper 1

Bill Bytheway, The Open University

The ideological use of demographic statistics

10.30-10.55: Paper 2

Jon Godwin, Glasgow Caledonian University

The proposed Scottish Longitudinal Study of Ageing (SaLSA)

10.55-11.05: Discussion of papers

11.05-11.20: Coffee break

Chair: Susan Mallett

11.20-11.45: Paper 3

Shereen Hussein, King's College London

Using Governmental data records to understand characteristics and reasons for social care workers referrals to the POVA List in England and Wales

11.45-12.10: Paper 4

Emily Grundy, London School of Hygiene & Tropical Medicine

Inequalities in later life health and well-being: are socio-economic and social support disadvantages offsetting or compounding factors?

12.10-12.35: Paper 5

Rosalind Willis, King's College London

Myths and statistics: An exploration of the assumptions connected to ethnicity and family support

12.35-12.50: Discussion of papers

12.50-13.35: Lunch break

Chair: Jay Ginn

13.35-14.00: Paper 6

Ludi Simpson, University of Manchester

Ageing, ethnic diversity and myths of migration

14.00-14.25: Paper 7

Bleddyn Davis, University of Oxford

Rational policies and political rationality for social care of older people

14.25-14.50: Paper 8

Jay Ginn, University of Surrey

Plunging Pensions and the Credit Crunch

14.50-15.05: Discussion of papers

15.05-15.20: Coffee break

15.20-15.45: Paper 9

Jackie Birks, University of Oxford

Don't Waste your pension on ginkgo.

15.45-16.00: Paper 10

John Grimley Evans, University of Oxford

Means and Ends

16.00-16.10: Discussion of papers

16.10-16.25: General comments by Professor Bleddyn Davies

16.30-17.45: AGM with special attention to financial matters

17.50: Closing

* Talks 25 minutes, except JGE by request.