

RADICAL STATISTICS

2010 Annual Conference: Whose statistics?

Saturday, February 27th 2010, Friends House Euston, London NW1 2BJ

9.30am Registration

10.00am: Welcome

10.05am Spinning statistics of terrorism, obesity and alcohol
David Miller, Spinwatch

10.45am Florence Nightingale, statistics and Members of Parliament
Eileen Magnello

11.25am What is the contribution of street lighting to keeping us safe?
... an investigation into a policy
Paul Marchant

12.05pm Radical Statistics Group annual general meeting
This is an open AGM to encourage collaborative action, all are welcome to participate

1-2 Lunch

2.00pm Your right to know statistics
Heather Brooke, Your Right to Know organisation

2.40pm Statistical ethics
Harvey Goldstein

3.20pm Statistical clues to social injustice
Danny Dorling

4pm Activity workshops

5pm close

Not only a conference

Friday night social gathering at the Perseverance pub (from 7:00 pm), 63 Lamb's Conduit St., WC1N 3NB. Food will be available to order until 9.45pm. Quiz night: bring a multiple choice question, or answer ours.

Saturday evening meal (6:30 pm) at Shah Tandoori, 159 Drummond Street, London, NW1 2PB (020-7383-5658). Meet before at the Crown and Anchor, 137 Drummond Street.

Sunday morning walk. Meet at 10:15. Further details available at the conference, depending on weather & interests.

£25 members / £35 non-members / £40 non-members including membership. £10 reduction student/unwaged

Book at <http://www.radstats.org.uk/conf2010/>