

RADICAL

STATISTICS 5

I knew very well that cities were being built
I did not go to see them.
That belongs to statistics, I thought,
Not to history.

What do cities amount to, built
Without the people's wisdom?

Brecht

CONTENTS

	Page no's
1. Editorial Notes.	1.
2. Suggestions for Rad Stats AGM., Liz Atkins.	2.
3. Motion for AGM., Stephen Shenfield.	3.
4. SSRC. Survey Unit Report, Cathie Marsh.	4.
5. Econometric Methodology in Technological and Educational Planning, Alan Warr.	4-8.
6. Report on first night of RS. Conference of 26-27 September, including David Dickson's paper on 'Science is Social Relations'.	8-14.
7. How Statistics can Confuse the Issue : a Response, Jeff Evans.	15.
8. Review of H M Blalock (ed), Measurement in the Social Sciences , Cathie Marsh.	16-17.
9. 'Statistics at Work', including discussion of editorial policy and letter, George Hay and RS ₅ collective.	18-20.
10. Science and Socialism Seminars.	21.
