

Report from RadStats' organising Troika committee

Larry Brownstein, Eileen Magnello, David Manley, Ludi Simpson

In the months since the very successful 2011 conference in Leeds, the Troika have met by Skype in April, May and July, at some times with less noise interference than other times! We are very grateful to all the volunteers for their many activities, making the organisation larger than life and leaving the Troika to be potentially more imaginative. Thanks to Jay Ginn and Val Saunders for taking on organising the 2012 conference in London.

As a Troika, we have:

- (a) at last progressed the bright idea for RadStats adverts the size of visiting-card, which advertise the group and its website, where the details of membership can be found, to replace the full and more expensive form. Please order as many of these as you can use to leave at any conference you are going to.
- (b) initiated a Wikipedia entry. Please search for it and improve it.
- (c) continued the RadStats blog. The blog is slow: we would welcome offers of bloggers.
- (d) approved Geoffrey Rendle as an extra signatory to cheques.
- (e) agreed in principle to archive RadStats materials with either Wellcome Trust library in London or Hull University archives. If you have any materials related to RadStats subgroups or other activities, contact ludi.simpson@manchester.ac.uk.

RADSTATS
advertising
cards for you!
Please order 50
or more to take
to conferences
you go to, to give to those who may be interested and
to leave on tables. We have these in black
and green and will have

others in black and yellow. We need the advertising to encourage more members and readers of the newsletter. Send your order (no charge) with your postal address to ludi.simpson@manchester.ac.uk.
