

Radical Statistics 2020 Annual Conference Programme

Friday, 28 February 9:00 – 5:30

St Luke's Centre, 90 Central Street, London EC1V 8A

“Learning from the Past to Build a Better Future”

9.00 am Coffee and registration

9.30 Anne Laure Humbert & Rachael McIlroy. Paid equally badly?

Gender and pay in the nursing profession

Greg Dropkin. RightCare: wrong answers

Anna Powell-Smith. Missing Numbers: the statistics we don't collect

11.00 Coffee

11.30 Lynn McDonald. Florence Nightingale and Statistics: What She Did and What She Did Not

Eileen Magnello. (Keynote Discussant) Florence Nightingale: The Radical and Passionate Statistician

12.30 - 2.00 pm Lunch

2.00 Danny Dorling. The UK health crisis

Andrew Street. Revisiting Nightingale's vision to assess the outcomes of hospital treatment

3.00 Tea

3.30 Dave Byrne. The IFS Deaton Review: Inequalities in the Twenty-First Century

Paul Marchant. 'Bad Stats' depletes the public purse

4:30 Jeff Evans, Humphrey Southall, Tina Beattie. Data in Society: Radical Statistics' new book

5.30 Conference ends

Everyone is warmly invited to join for informal social events.
Meet old and new members to discuss the conference themes & more.

Thursday February 27

Pre-conference gathering at the Norfolk Arms, 28 Leigh Street. WC1H 9EP

Meet from 7pm for a pre-conference drink and /or meal.

Friday, February 28

Stay on for a drink and food, 6.00-ish at The Iskele, 179-181
Whitecross St, London EC1Y 8QP

Like Thursday, meals will not be pre-booked, just pay individually.
Please join for a drink even if you are not staying for a meal.

Members and the public are invited to
Radical Statistics meetings and discussions.

Saturday, 28 February

St Luke's Centre, 90 Central Street, London EC1V 8A

9.00 Coffee and welcome

9.30 “Radical Statistics in an age of globalisation and populism”

Discussion led by the editorial team of Data in Society, based on ideas in Part VI of the book. Contributions are invited from Jonathan Rosenhead, a founder member of BSSRS and from members of newer groups whose concerns overlap with those of Radical Statistics.

10.45 Tea / coffee

11.00 Future organisation of Radical Statistics to respond to these challenges

12.00 Radical Statistics Annual General Meeting

1.00 pm Lunch St Luke's Central Café - a convivial place to enjoy informal discussions.

Plans are being made for a Florence Nightingale walk in the afternoon. Details will be available nearer the time.

To register your interest in attending the Saturday events, please email: admin@radstats.org.uk

Further information is available at: radstats.org.uk/conference